The school sector's experience of EQF referencing

John Hammond
NCCA

The referencing process

- Straightforward process: appropriate criteria
- Encouraged reflection on the placing of school qualifications and on quality assurance
- Raised the question of the placing of Leaving Certificate programmes
- An accommodating and enabling process

The school sector and frameworks

Frameworks are only as good as

- Their implementation and use
- The positive influence and leverage for change they can provide
- The ongoing critique and development applied to them
